AMENDED COMPLAINT

Jury Trial Demanded

NATURE OF THE ACTION

This is an action under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and Title I of the Civil Rights Act of 1991 to correct unlawful employment practices on the basis of sex and retaliation, and to provide appropriate relief to charging party Carla Hart and a class of females who were adversely affected by such practices. Defendants LBW Investments, L.L.C., d/b/a JB's Family Restaurants; Summit Family Restaurants, Inc., d/b/a JB's Family Restaurants; Santa Barbara Restaurant Group, Inc., d/b/a JB's Family Restaurants; and CKE Restaurants, Inc., d/b/a JB's Family Restaurants (collectively "defendants") subjected Ms. Hart and a class of women to repeated, pervasive and

2

1 egregious sexual harassment and retaliated against a class of women for opposing the 2 harassment. Defendants engaged in discrimination which adversely affected the 3 employment status of Ms. Hart and a class of females because of their sex.

4 As alleged with greater particularity below, the sexual harassment was 5 committed by defendants' managers and employees and included the forcible sexual 6 assault of a female employee by a manager. As a result of this unlawful conduct, the 7 conditions of employment were made so intolerable that Ms. Hart and a class of females
8 were forced to resign their employment.

23 STATEMENT OF CLAIMS

24 12. More than thirty days prior to the institution of this lawsuit, Carla Hart
25 filed a charge with the Commission alleging violations of Title VII by defendants. All 26 conditions precedent to the institution of this lawsuit have been fulfilled.

27 13. Since at least February 2, 1996, defendants have engaged in unlawful
28 employment practices at their Utah restaurants, in violation of Section 703(a) of Title

1 VII, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-2(a), by sexually harassing Ms. Hart and a class of female
2 employees and subjecting them to sexual harassment; failing to take appropriate action
3 to prevent and correct the harassment; and forcing them to resign because of the sexual 4 harassment. The sexual harassment includes but is not limited to:

- 5 a. The forcible sexual assault of a female employee by defendants' manager
6 on defendants' premises;
 - 7 1. The female employee filed a report with the police in which she 8 alleged defendants' manager forcibly sexually assaulted her in 9 defendants' restaurant.
 - 10 2. Prior to this female employee's allegation that defendants' manager 11 forcibly sexually assaulted her, defendants had notice that this 12 manager had sexually harassed at least one other female employee.
 - 13 3. Despite defendants' knowledge of the prior sexual harassment by 14 their manager, defendants failed to take appropriate action to 15 prevent further sexual harassment and sexual assault by him.
- 16 b. Various managers and employees of defendants grabbed female
17 employees' breasts, buttocks and crotches, kissed them although they did 18 not want to be kissed and engaged in other unwelcome touching;
- 19 c. Various managers and employees of defendants made unwelcome sexual 20 advances toward female employees;
- 21 d. Various managers and employees of defendants made vulgar sexual 22 comments to and about female employees, including making such 23 comments about the women's bodies and specifically about their 24 genitalia;
- 25 e. Defendants constructively discharged Ms. Hart and a class of women
26 because of the pervasive, egregious sexual harassment at defendants'
27 restaurants.
- 28 14. Although defendants were aware of the sexual harassment, they failed to 1 take appropriate remedial action to prevent or correct the unlawful conduct.

2 15. Since at least February 2, 1996, defendants have engaged in unlawful
3 retaliatory practices in violation of Section 704(a) of Title VII, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-3(a).
4 Defendants retaliated against a class of women by changing the terms and conditions of 5 their employment because they opposed conduct made unlawful under Title VII.
6 Defendants' retaliatory conduct included but was not limited to firing at least one class
7 member because she complained that a manager was sexually harassing her by touching
8 her breasts.

9 16. Defendants have engaged in continuing sex discrimination which 10 constitutes a continuing violation of Title VII.

11 17. The effect of the practices complained of in Paragraph Twelve (§12), 12 through and including Paragraph Sixteen (§16) above has been to deprive Ms. Hart and 13 a class of females of equal employment opportunities and otherwise adversely affect 14 their status as employees because of their sex and in retaliation for opposing practices
15 made unlawful by Title VII.

16 18. The unlawful employment practices complained of in Paragraph Twelve
17 (§12), through and including Paragraph Seventeen (§17) above were and are 18 intentional.

19 19. The unlawful employment practices complained of in Paragraph Twelve
20 (§12), through and including Paragraph Seventeen (§17) above were done with malice
21 or with reckless indifference to the federally protected rights of Ms. Hart and a class of 22 females.

23 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

24 WHEREFORE, the Commission respectfully requests that this Court:

25 A. Grant a permanent injunction enjoining defendants, their officers, 26 successors, assigns, and all persons in active concert or participation with them from 27 engaging in sexual harassment, retaliation and any other employment practice which 28 discriminates on the basis of sex or retaliation.

1 B. Order defendants to institute and carry out policies, practices, and 2 programs which provide equal employment opportunities for women and those who 3 oppose unlawful employment discrimination, and which eradicate the effects of their 4 past and present unlawful employment practices.

5 C. Order defendants to make whole Ms. Hart and a class of females by 6 providing appropriate backpay with prejudgment interest, in amounts to be determined
7 at trial, and other affirmative relief necessary to eradicate the effects of their unlawful 8 employment practices including, but not limited to, their rightful place reinstatement.

9 D. Order defendants to make whole Ms. Hart and a class of females, by 10 providing compensation for past and future pecuniary losses resulting from the 11 unlawful employment practices described in Paragraph Twelve (§12), through and 12 including Paragraph Seventeen (§17) above, including but not limited to costs incurred 13 for obtaining treatment and subsequent employment, in amounts to be determined at 14 trial.

15 E. Order defendants to make whole Ms. Hart and a class of females by 16 providing compensation for past and future non-pecuniary losses resulting from the 17 unlawful practices complained of in Paragraph Twelve (§12), through and including 18 Paragraph Seventeen (§17) above, including emotional pain, suffering, inconvenience,
19 loss of enjoyment of life and humiliation, in amounts to be determined at trial.

20 F. Order defendants to pay Ms. Hart and a class of females punitive damages
21 for their malicious and/or reckless conduct, described in Paragraph Twelve (§12),
22 through and including Paragraph Seventeen (§17) above, in amounts to be determined 23 at trial.

24 G. Grant such further relief as the Court deems necessary and proper in the 25 public interest.

26 H. Award the Commission its costs of this action.
